The conference provides a platform for policy makers , bankers , corporate executives and researchers to share ideas on the best economic and corporate strategies for survival and growth in globalised markets. Papers may be submitted in any of the following three categories: 1. Academic Papers

2. Reflective Practices and 3. Case Studies

Stream 1: Academic Papers

Academic papers could be either conceptual or empirical. Conceptual papers should develop strong arguments and new theoretical perspectives on issues related to entrepreneurship and its facilitation, using evidences from prior research.

Empirical papers, on the other hand, should have a short and focused literature review to justify the need for the study and develop the hypotheses, explain the methodology, present the data and their analysis, draw appropriate conclusions, and discuss the theoretical and practical implications of the findings.

Stream 2: Reflective Practices

These are papers by practitioners (entrepreneurs, executives, consultants, policymakers), based on systematic reflections on their own practice. Such reflections should have a 'narrative section' which briefly describes the practice in question, explaining its context, purpose, and scope, and an 'exposition section' which elaborates on the problems encountered by various stake-holders at the implementation stage.

Stream 3: Case-Studies

Cases may be written by managers in banks , companies , Government , research bodies and by academicians. The style of writing the case should be narrative with appropriate tables, figures and annexures.

Six “Best Paper Awards” – Two each from the three categories of papers, namely, Academic papers, Reflective practice, and Case-studies will be presented in the concluding ceremony of the conference.

Apart from these “ Six Best Papers “, twenty four best papers - 8 each from the three categories of papers, namely, Academic papers, Reflective practice, and Case-studies will be published in the Conference Proceedings. The Conference Proceedings will also be available on the e-Library site of GTU's web-site.

Abstracts of all the papers presented at the conference will be published in the conference proceedings with ISBN No. 978-93-81361-78-8

City of Ahmedabad : Located on the banks of river Sabarmati, Ahmedabad is the largest city in the whole state of Gujarat. From the year 1960 to 1970, it served as the capital city of Gujarat. However, later on, the capital was shifted to the Gandhinagar city. It was founded in the year 1411 by Sultan Ahmed Shah. It is owing to this reason that, sometimes, it is also referred to as the city of Ahmed Shah. Ahmedabad is the hub of trade and commerce in Gujarat. The commercial importance of Ahmedabad makes the city an important travel destination in India. Besides being home to a number of important industries, Ahmedabad also has a number of majestic monuments, which remind us of the great historical and cultural past of the city.

Tourist Attractions in Gujarat :

Pavagadh:

A wonderful hill resort for the people of Vadodara, Pavagadh is widely believed to be a chunk of the Himalayas.

Champaner : Lying at the foothills of the Pavagadh hill in Gujarat, Champaner is the first while capital of Sultan Mahmud Beghara. The Jama Masjid here is a must visit.

Ahmedabad: The city of Ahmed Shah who was the medieval ruler of Gujarat, associated with the great thinker and freedom fighter, Mahatma Gandhi, Ahmedabad offers the traveler an exclusive blend of Hindu and Islamic styles of architecture.

Gandhinagar: Located about 25 kilometers north of Ahmedabad, Gandhinagar is the newly built capital of Gujarat, named after Mahatma Gandhi.

Surat: An important center for textiles, zari (gold and silver threadwork) and diamond cutting and polishing, Surat in Gujarat is one of the favorite tourist sites.

Saputara: Gujarat's most popular hill resort, Saputara literally means 'the Abode of Serpents' and is situated on top of the second highest plateau in the Sahyadri range in the center of thick forests.

Junagadh: To the west of Bhavnagar, situated at the base of the Girnar Hills of Gujarat is Junagadh. The place to be seen in Junagadh is the rock edict of Emperor Ashoka, dating back to 250 B.C.

Uperkot: Located around five kilometers from Junagadh is Uperkot. The fort on top of the Uperkot hill, constructed by the Rajputs, has a beautifully decorated triple gateway. The Buddhist caves and stupas of times as early as 100-700 AD are other attractions in Uperkot.

Porbandar: Set along the coast of Gujarat to the west of Junagadh, is Porbandar. It is famous for being the birthplace of Mahatma Gandhi.

Bhuj: Known popularly as the doorway to Kutch, the old walled city Bhuj is one of the most important tourist destinations in India.

Somnath: Located near the port town of Veraval in Junagadh, Somnath is perhaps one of the most visited pilgrimage centers of Gujarat.

Dwarka: Lying on the northern tip of the Saurashtra peninsula, at the convergence of the Gomti River and the Arabian Sea, the holy town of Dwarka is yet another pilgrimage site.

Girnar: The complex of 16 marble temples atop the 1,118-meter high Mount Girnar in Junagadh district of Gujarat, is one of the most sacred pilgrimage sites for the Jain community, situated.

Palitana: The 863 Jain temples at Palitana of Gujarat are located on the 600-meter high Shatrujaya Hill, and are dedicated to various Jain saints and deities. Some other cities within 500 kms from Ahmedabad are Udaipur, Jaipur, Gwalior, Indore, Ujjain etc.
